Prince Aly Muhammad is the third son and youngest child of His Highness the Aga Khan. He was born on 7th March 2000 in Paris, France and has completed his secondary education in Europe.

Prince Aly Muhammad’s travels have taken him to various countries where the Aga Khan Development Network (AKDN) is active.

In 2017, he visited northern Pakistan, which inspired him to produce his documentary film, “Close To Home.” The film explores life in the face of natural disasters, and AKDN’s efforts to mitigate their impact. The project has helped increase awareness about the environmental issues that threaten some of the world’s most vulnerable communities.

8 JULY 2018